

Declaration of solidarity with Ukrainian peasants

For more than a year and a half, the rural populations of Ukraine have been suffering the terrible consequences of war. La Via Campesina recognizes the importance of the Ukrainian peasantry, with its millions of small and medium-sized farms, and affirms the need to support Ukrainian peasant movements in the face of land grabbing and the disproportionate power of agribusiness.

On the occasion of its 8th International Conference in Bogotá, La Via Campesina sends a message of solidarity to the Ukrainian people and to all populations affected by wars and armed conflicts around the world. We denounce all war profiteers and condemn the imperialism of the EU and all the imperialisms of the world. We reaffirm the right to self-determination of all peoples. We reaffirm the need to settle disputes by diplomatic means. We want peace! We want justice!

8th International Conference of La Via Campesina
December 2023, Bogotá, Colombia

