SOLIDARITY LETTER FOR COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY STUDENTS

LA VIA CAMPESINA INTERNATIONAL PEASANT MOVEMENT
UNION OF AGRICULTURAL WORK COMMITTEES (UAWC), PALESTINE

DEAR COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY STUDENTS STANDING FOR PALESTINE,

On behalf of La Via Campesina, an international movement of millions of peasants, the landless, rural women and youth, indigenous people, migrants and agricultural workers worldwide, champions social justice and sustainable agriculture, we extend our unwavering and profound solidarity with your courageous and revolutionary actions to stand firm against the war and crimes that the world is witnessing.

We, the social and popular movement, stand in solidarity with oppressed communities around the globe, fighting for a world where all people can live with dignity and freedom.

Your unwavering commitment to justice in Palestine and your bold protests and unwavering defiance against oppressive systems are more than just gestures. They are transformative acts that propel the fight for collective liberation.

Your steadfast determination and principled actions ignite a beacon of hope and an inspiration to us all, lighting the path toward a just and free future for Palestine and all oppressed populations.

As an international movement, we have witnessed countless struggles for justice and liberation. We recognize the power of collective action and the importance of standing in solidarity with those fighting for their rights. Your actions are a testament to the unwavering spirit of resistance that exists among the Palestinian people and all those who seek justice. Your hysterical commitment to justice and solidarity, reminding people around the world that even in the face of oppression, the human spirit of resistance can never be extinguished. There is no way to change this grim reality without intensified, unified, and unwavering belief and conscience in the power of solidarity and shared humanity.

We wholeheartedly salute your revolutionary spirit that seeks justice and freedom, and contributes to the global struggle for a better future for humanity, where the right to a decent life, justice, freedom, sovereignty, and diversity are guaranteed for all.

Thank you for your relentless support. Together, we will continue planting hope for the present and the future of Palestine and all human beings.

In Solidarity,

La Via Campesina & UAWC
